Good-Bye Hot Comb

There is one sure way that has never failed to make Knotty, Kinky hair straight without the use of hot combs.

KAP-O-LINE isn't one of those fake hair treatment offers you have seen so many times. KAP-O-LINE has the endorsement of every reputable doctor, and guaranteed by the manufacturer. This makes the offer one which you can absolutely depend upon. KAP-O-LINE has been sold under absolute money-back guarantee for more than fifteen years. It is especially compounded by trained chemists in the largest manufacturing laboratories of toiletries in the Southwest. As a treatment for falling hair, dandruff and all scalp diseases, making the hair soft, fluffy and lustrous, is not greasy nor gummy.

The Kap-O-Line Way To Make Knotty, Kinky Hair Straight

The hair must be thoroughly washed. We recommend KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, as it puts the hair and scalp in a clean, antiseptic condition. Then apply thoroughly KAP-O-LINE every night for six nights, brushing and combing the hair thoroughly night and morning. After six days' treatment you will have a gift of beautiful straight hair, full of life and vigor. Just such hair you are promised once you start the use of KAP-O-LINE.

Price of KAP-O-LINE, 35 cents; KAP-O-LINE Shampoo, 50 cts. Sold by most druggists, or mailed upon receipt of price and your druggist's name. Manufactured by STONE & CO., Perfumers, Dallas, Texas.

Agents Wanted—An opportunity to make big profits if you have little money to invest as our exclusive agent.

Detroit Man Weds Tulsa Teacher

Little Cupid invaded the city school room here last Saturday and led to the matrimonial altar Miss Carrie Davis, one of the teachers, who became the wife of Mr. O. Penbrook of Detroit. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. T. S. Johnson at the M. E. Church. The groom was introduced to the bride's pupils Monday morning.

BRISTOW, OKLA.

The Reception given by Mr. A. Canady at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. George Wolfe was a swell affair. Ice cream, fish sandwiches with salad and the punch bowl had swollen to a bursting capacity. Among the guests were Mr. I. West, Judy Sears, Odus Wolfe, H. Wolfe, Matilda Connor, Sellers, J. Westener, Mrs. Cora Echolas, Minnie George and K. Cousin from Selma, Alabama and many others. Mr. George Wolfe one of our big farmers hauled five loads of cotton to market last week and came back with a pocket full of clear receipts and money in his pocket which had turned green. George is O. K. and good for his contracts.

Mr. B. C. Harris carried two loads of cotton to market Wednesday and received a fancy price for same. He is a coming young man.

This Community is one of the best in Oklahoma. No fussing, killing and lawlessness ever touches our country, not even rolling the bones comes in our path. Our young men and girls are the best high cultured well educated and above all are of the best morals. Looking forward and trying to live up to the standing of the Southland our native place of abode. We are thankful.

Mr. Will Clark, the Hay King of this community, is selling at 60c a bale. You had better buy because it will go higher.

FROM THE CHILDREN'S CLUB

In spite of the rain Thursday the Bazaar given by the club was quite a success and all who attended seem to have enjoyed the evening.

Miss Ruth Walden having the highest number of votes received the prize, which was a large hand ivory mirror. The prize was presented by Mr. Julius M. Tyler who was selected by the guest for the occasion.

Miss Judyth Horton received the loving cup and a beautiful net and Irish point lace cap, a reward for her zealous labor.

The club heartily thanks these young ladies for their assistance and the same thanks to all who helped them in the contest.

Sunday brought many little anxious faces to the club all eager to know if they had enough now to purchase another apparatus. Give them a chance for fun.

Better a playground plot

Than a court and jail when the harm is done

Give them a chance; if you stint them now

Tomorrow you will have to pay—

A larger bill for a darker ill.

So please give them a chance to play.

The club meets every Sunday evening at three thirty o'clock.

Friends and parents are invited.
